

A VISIT FROM...MARTHA WASHINGTON

East Vincent Township
Lectures Under the Stars

Presents: A Visit with Martha Washington

Saturday, July 18th 7 pm

Reenacted by Carol Spacht

We've invited a "historic" guest to bring to life the wife of George Washington and the unique role women played in building our nation and service during the Revolutionary War.

Learn about joining her husband for the winter encampments and her function in maintaining the morale of the soldiers.

Carol Spacht, an engaging and delightful storyteller, has portrayed Martha Washington for Valley Forge National Park and the Smithsonian Institute. Experience how history becomes real and relevant through this first-person character interpretation to be enjoyed by all ages.

Join us at: East Vincent Township Building
